

Prof. Dr. Till Dammaschke, Münster, Germany

Curriculum Vitae

Assistant Dental Director, Department of Periodontology and Operative Dentistry, Westphalian Wilhelms-University Münster, Germany. Born in 1965. 1986 studied sociology, politics and history at the Georg-August-University Göttingen, Germany. 1987 - 1993 dentistry study at the Georg-August-University Göttingen. Since 1994 working at the Department of Operative Dentistry at the Westphalian Wilhelms-University. 1996 Doctorate at the Georg-August-University Göttingen. Since 1998 senior resident of the Department of Operative Dentistry at the Westphalian Wilhelms-University. 2007 Appointment to "Akademischer Rat". 2008 habilitation thesis on histological research of direct capping with MTA and composite resins in comparison to calcium hydroxide. 2009 Appointment to "Akademischer Oberrat". 2012 Appointment as professor. Since 2015, Head of the section "Cariology and Pediatric Dentistry" of the Department of Periodontology and Operative Dentistry, Münster. Annual Prize of the German Association of Operative Dentistry (DGZ) 2000, 2004, 2016 and 2018. Award Winner of the journal "Endodontie" 2000, 2010 and 2016. Best Researcher of the German Association of Dental and Maxillofacial Medicine (DGZMK) 2004. Scientific Advisory Board of the journal "Endodontie" (Germany) and "Magazyn Stomatologiczny" (Poland), Section Editor "Head & Face Medicine", Associate Editor "European Endodontic Journal" and "Dentistry Journal". Editorial Board Member of "Clinical Oral Investigations". Certified member of the European Society of Endodontology (ESE).

Contact:

Till Dammaschke, Prof. Dr. med. dent.
Department of Periodontology and Operative Dentistry
Albert-Schweitzer-Campus 1, building W30
Waldeyerstr. 30
48149 Münster
Germany